This little catalogue comes to you from a flower lover. In it you will find a list of annual and perennial plants that are the best suited for this climate. These plants for the most part are field grown, by that I mean grown out of doors, (not under glass), while some to give them a longer period of blooming, are started under glass.

Few people take into consideration that the field grown plants like the Marigold, Zinnia, Calendula, etc., are already acclimated, therefore more easily transplanted.

At this time will you accept my sincere thanks for your loyal patronage, and while the climatic conditions were not good for our gardens last year, we will not be discouraged and will try to make them a greater success this year.

MARIGOLDS, ZINNIAS, CORNFLOWER AND CALENDULAS

Marigolds: No flower garden seems complete without this old-fashioned flower, with its brilliant color of yellow and orange. The African varieties are tall, from one to three feet, and as a usual thing produce large double blossoms. The French Marigolds are more of a dwarf nature, and are better suited for edges and bedding purposes.

AFRICAN MARIGOLDS

Pride of the Garden, Lemon Ball. Plants 35 cents per dozen.

Pride of the Garden, Orange Ball. Plants 35 cents per dozen.

FRENCH MARIGOLDS

Legion of Honor: A single flowering Marigold, forming compact bushes nine inches high. The flowers are golden yellow, marked with a large spot of crimson. Excellent for borders. Plants 35 cents per dozen.

Golden Striped: Deep brownish red, sometimes marked with yellow, generally double. Plants 35 cents per dozen.

Calendula (Pot Marigold): Many people are just finding out that this plant is one of the most satisfactory for their gardens. First, it blooms until late. Second, while belonging to the Marigold family it has not the pungent odor of the Marigold. Third, because of its beautiful colors ranging from a creamy white through the different shades of yellow to orange. Fourth, it is most easy to grow. Plants 35 cents a dozen.

ZINNIAS (Youth and Old Age)

The Zinnia has become one of the most popular annuals, as it is one of the most satisfactory flowers grown.

It is easy to grow, and besides being fine for cutting, it can be used to fill in the bare places in the garden when the early Perennials are through blooming. I cannot recommend the Zinnia too highly for general use.

The following are the six best colors and are of the giant variety:

Giant Orange King Giant Rose Queen Giant Canary Yellow

Giant Purity Giant Scarlet Giant Crimson

Price of plants, 35 cents per dozen.

DAHLIA OR MAMMOTH PERSIAN ZINNIAS

The Persian or Dahlia Zinnias are of the latest improved Dahlia variety.

These Zinnias are generally of immense size and the colors are those of the soft pastel shades, also the stronger hues.

These plants of mixed colors are 35 cents a dozen.

CORNFLOWER: This flower is also known as Bachelor Button, Blue Bottle, Ragged Sailor, Bluet. They are well-known to every flower-lover, and are always included in old-fashioned gardens.
